Every person present received a bunch of yellow handbills at the top of which Republicans are urged in big black letters to "vote a split ticket and help 'defeat Artemas Ward, Jr., because his record in the Legislature shows he has no faith n the voters, no care for the interests of the citizens of this city, no comprehension that he is but a representative of the people." Fifteen reasons for voting against Mr. Ward are enumerated. They consist of statements regarding his votes on tenement house, direct primary and woman suffrage bills and various bills bearing upon the jurisdiction of the Public Service Commission.

"This is all very well so far as it goes," said Mrs. Blatch, "but it is merely a beginning. Three of our best women lawyers are going to spend every day until election in libraries going over the Assembly journal and making a record of Mr. Ward's position on every issue before the Legislature.
